

REPORT ON ESS FACULTY CHRISTMAS CHARITY CONCERT

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN

The first ESS Charity Concert proved to be a great success on Tuesday night last (10 December). This was largely due to the enormous input by both lecturers and students.

I would like to again thank the sponsors (Kilmartins Wine Bar, Guinness Group Sales and the Bank of Ireland). I would also like to express my thanks to David Norris who injected atmosphere, which would have been lost without him, into the whole evening. Sincere thanks also to Professor Charles McCarthy, Dean of the Faculty who stayed right to the bitter end. Last but not least I would like to thank everyone who participated and who came along on the night without who's support the show would not have had gone on.

Gross takings for the night were £755 less expenses which included lighting £100, P.A. £60, Porters £20 and Incidentals £20 which left us with a net amount of £555. (Below is the receipt for this amount given to the Simon Community).
